

Achala Scholarship

Achala Scholarship is a program to award deserving candidates scholarships to pursue Online Masters in CSR and Sustainability and Post graduate program (PGP) in CSR and Sustainability offered by IICSR and Sustainability knowledge management.

The project is named after the late Smt Achala Saxena, a lawyer and humanitarian who worked for the underprivileged society. She also advocated for the slum areas in Mumbai and got the law against demolition of the slums constructed before 1990 in Mumbai. She worked for the laws of the marginal and downtrodden people in the society. She gave utmost importance to education and especially for the girl child. The Achala Scholarship program is in her memory to empower passionate people to work for the society.

Criteria to give scholarship - The candidate's CV, Statement of purpose and interview organized by the institute should demonstrate a track record for working for the upliftment of the society.
